

Cancellation & Refund Policy

The company is primarily engaged in the business of lending and as such there is no refund of money involved in the normal course of business. In case of exceptional circumstances where the customer has paid Excess Amount or EMI in advance the same will be refunded post receipt of a request from the customer requesting for refund and the request being found satisfactory by the competent authority of the company.